

Dear Parents,

During the 2009/2010 school year, your child will have opportunities to contribute content to our classroom website, www.mrwylie.com. At selected times throughout the year; each student will take on the role of our “Budding Blogger” and write a summary of what we are learning in class that week. Each summary will then be published on our website’s “Student Blog” page (more detailed information regarding “Budding Bloggers” will be sent home with your child). Students may also complete assignments in class that could be scanned, uploaded or recorded as audio and put onto the website as a celebration of their achievements.

I take the issue of student security very seriously. For this reason, any student work published to mrwylie.com, whether it is a Budding Blogger article, artwork, student writing or other material, will only be accompanied by a first name (and last initial if students share the same first name). No personal information or photos of your child will be published.

I am excited about the new school year and the things planned for mrwylie.com. Please complete the form at the bottom of this page regarding your child’s work being published on our classroom website. If you have any questions about the website, or how your child’s work will be displayed, please do not hesitate to contact me at 319-448-4325 or jwylie@northlinn.k12.ia.us.

Thank you!

Mr. Wylie
