

At Wall Drug

Grandpa, Grandma, and I went to Wyoming . We decided to go to Wall Drug. It was so much fun! I had a roast beef sandwich, mash potatoes (gravy) and green beans. It was DELICIOUS!

Then I went in the backyard of Wall Drug. I went on statues of a jackrabbit, 2 horses, a bull, and a reindeer. Then I went in a tee pee. I saw statues of 2 cowboys, 2 Indians and Annie Oakley.

Then inside there was an ENORMOUS BIG DINOSAUR!!! After 12 minutes steam came out of its ears, his head came out and moved, and it made a deafening roar! I got a handmade and painted mini pot and took some pictures. When I left I felt amazed at what I saw!
